

January 23rd Dinner Meeting

Location: Santa Rosa Veterans' Memorial Building
1351 Maple Ave, Santa Rosa (across from the So. Co. Fairgrounds)

Our Speaker this month:

Third District County Supervisor, Shirlee Zane

Working with law enforcement, Health Services and Mental Health advocates, Supervisor Zane launched a Behavioral Health Mobile Support Team to assist law enforcement on 911 mental health and substance abuse calls. She has worked closely with the District Attorney and community providers to open and fund the First Family Justice Center to provide wraparound services to victims of domestic abuse, sexual assault, and elder abuse. Supervisor Zane is recognized nationally for her leadership on health and human service issues.

Zane's highest priorities for 2018 were building new housing and rebuilding housing lost in the October 2017 wildfires, addressing homelessness, protecting environmental and human health, and public safety. She will share her priorities for this year along with the Board of Supervisors goals for 2019.
