

June 24th Dinner Meeting

Location: Location: WE ARE MEETING with ZOOM.

Join us on Zoom either virtually or by phone (information on page 2)

BLACK LIVES MATTER

We are all saddened and outraged by the murder of George Floyd and other Black Americans as a result of police actions! Enough is Enough! Change is needed NOW! Our Santa Rosa Democratic Club Executive Board took a stand with Santa Rosa Mayor Schwedholm and the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors. See information on page 3 for ways you can speak out too.

Santa Rosa City Councilmember Chris Rogers

Chris Rogers currently serves on the Santa Rosa City Council, and was Vice Mayor for two years during this, his first term. He is running in the November 3, 2020 election to represent District 5 which encompasses the majority of the City's historic neighborhoods.

He will be speaking to us about the homeless issue, the budget crisis currently facing the City which has been exacerbated by COVID-19, the current unemployment of our citizens, and the ongoing problems we face with racial discrimination in general and how it is impacting our local police.

Program Schedule:

Welcome and report of club activities and needs – Sandy Reynolds, President

Local Candidates for office in Santa Rosa and Sonoma County

- Ever Flores, Candidate Santa Rosa City School Board Trustee, Area 1 (confirmed to attend)

Speaker: Chris Rogers, Santa Rosa City Councilmember including Q & A

Reminder: Please renew your membership for 2020 with checks payable to SRDC, P.O. Box 32, Santa Rosa, CA 95402. $20 Individuals; $30 Family.
