

December 9th ZOOM Meeting

Location: WE ARE MEETING with ZOOM.

Join us on Zoom either virtually or by phone (information on page 2)

Year End Celebration & Our Local Elected Officials

As has become our year-end tradition, we have invited our Newly Elected Officials who represent Santa Rosa to share this evening with us. 2020 has brought about many challenges, and we are again hosting an informal “open mic” forum for them to talk about what the future holds. We have invited (not yet confirmed) the following:

- ✓ Santa Rosa City Councilmembers elect Eddie Alvarez (District 1), Jack Tibbetts (District 3), Chris Rogers (District 5), and Natalie Rogers (District 7)
- ✓ Santa Rosa High School District Trustee elect Ever Flores (Area 1)
- ✓ Sonoma County Junior College District Trustees elect Caroline Banuelos and Dra. Mariana Martinez (Santa Rosa Area)
- ✓ Sonoma County Supervisor elect Chris Coursey (3rd District).

Join us to celebrate our successes, and enjoy the companionship of our brothers and sisters as we face the challenges and future including the inauguration of President elect Joe Biden and Vice President elect Kamala Harris.

One Warm Coat

Club member, Susan Mullins, will be collecting coats that will be donated to Redwood Covenant Church Charities, Catholic Charities Homeless Service Center, and Redwood Gospel Mission. Winter warmth coats for men, women, and/or children that are in good, clean condition may be dropped off at Susan's office, Keller Williams Wine Country Realty, 3562 Round Barn, Suite 200, Santa Rosa 95403 between 9 am - 12 noon, and 1 pm – 5 pm Monday through Friday.

This donation is done through the Santa Rosa Chapter of North Bay Association of Realtors and Keller Williams Realty annual drive.
